Aged at least for 3.5 years, the sake is amazingly balanced with acidity and body. Brewed with the natural Yamahai method, this sake can be enjoyed by itself or with dishes that are rich in flavour.

Nagayamahonke has been in operation since 1888. Takahiro Nagayama, the 4th generation owner, took over his family business as a 'toji' (master brewer) in 2001. The brand name, "TAKA", was taken from his name, "Takahiro".

Since 2004, the Taka brand has been dedicated to brewing only junmai sake with personality and character.
